

BRECKENRIDGE NEWS.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 28, 1894.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Merrily bells are ringing,
Girls and boys are singing;
Merrily on they go
O'er the beauties—that'll never do in the world.

New maple sugar—Sulzer's.
Fleishman's Yeast—Sulzer's.
Papaetti's in all colors—Babbage's.
Nice, new stationery at Babbage's.
New line of hammocks—Babbage's.
Try our select 10 cent tea—Sulzer's.
Butter beans, peas, hominy—Sulzer's.
Pure Maple sugar at the City Bakery.
Jess Miller went to Louisville yesterday.

Mrs. S. S. Watkins is visiting in Owensboro.

Ol Mattingly is in Owensboro on business.

Nice line of pens and pencils—Babbage's.

The Texas pay car was in the city last night.

This is hard weather on the "pyrooting" candidates.

Use Heinz's preserves, best on the market—Sulzer's.

Miss Jennie Warfield is still visiting in Hardinsburg.

Claud Brashar, of Union Star, was in the city Saturday.

Oatmeal, cracked wheat, rolled oats and rice—Sulzer's.

Ernest Robertson, of Glendene, was in the city Saturday.

Dr. Cottrell lectured in Hebbardsville Saturday night.

New box stationery—10 cents to 60 cents a box—Babbage's.

Babbage, the leader in neckwear—latest designs and shapes.

Mrs. R. M. Jolly, of Louisville, is reported to be dangerously ill.

Hon. Will Miller, of Hardinsburg, went to Owensboro, Sunday.

The river will probably take another small rise as this snow melts.

Miss Bush, of Hawesville, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. G. W. Boyd.

Mr. William Hall, of Webster, is the guest of his family in this city.

Miss LaFayette LaHeist has returned from her visit in Hardinsburg.

Born, to the wife of George Pate, Feb. 22, a bouncing 12 pound boy.

Mr. George Mullen, of Owensboro, is at home on a visit to his parents.

Miss Bettie Hambleton, of Lewisport, is the guest of Mrs. B. H. Haynes.

T. C. Blanford has moved his family back to Owensboro from Evansville.

Jersey butter crackers put up in neat one-pound drums at the City Bakery.

Henry M. Howard, of Connelton, Ind., attended the Oglesby sale last Saturday.

Curry Powder, prevents colic or indigestion from eating vegetables—Sulzer's.

New style visiting cards and invitation cards—envelopes to match—Babbage's.

The lectures in the Catholic church every Wednesday night are growing in interest.

Master Johnnie McGary, of Kirk, was the guest of his aunt, Mrs. Thos. Lewis, last week.

All the best brands of inks, writing fluids and copying inks may be had at—Babbage's.

If you want a good strong cup of coffee, something real good, use our Golden Rio—Sulzer's.

There is no spring fever connected with the weather we have had for the past three days.

Silver prunes, cooking raisins, California pears, currants, peaches and cranberries—Sulzer's.

The "Gem" outing shirt warranted fast colors—length, 40 inches—price 50 cents—Babbage's.

Mrs. U. G. Hill returned from Henderson Monday, where she has been on an extended visit.

Mrs. L. A. Dix, of near Stephensport, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. W. H. Courtney, Owensboro.

For the benefit of our many readers we wish to inform them that it snowed furiously last Sunday.

Frank Boyd is making one of the best and fastest gnagers in the service. He is located at Uniontown.

Master Pitts Babbage went to Louisville last Friday to receive further treatment from his physician.

Quarterly meeting Saturday and Sunday, preaching Saturday at 11 a. m. Dr. S. H. Hall, presiding elder.

Charlie Lightfoot has not yet entered the race for sheriff, but he has some inclination in that direction.

Mrs. Eliza Taylor and son Alfred, of Rosetta, came over Saturday to visit Mrs. Taylor's mother, Mrs. Elvira Babbage.

Easter comes this year on March 25th. It will be nearly a hundred years before it falls again so early and on the same date.

Mr. J. B. Hensley, of Hardinsburg, passed through the city Sunday, en route to Louisville to see his sister, Mrs. R. M. Jolly.

G. W. Boyd moved yesterday into the house on the corner of Houston and Second streets recently vacated by James Hambleton.

Canned peas, beans, corn, tomatoes, peaches, plums, apples, blackberries, apricots, Gooseberries and pineapples—Sulzer's.

Curry Powder, an admirable production from East India, a fine flavored seasoning for fish and game, salads, soups and rich dishes—Sulzer's.

Dr. Simons says there is one well on the hill that developed six cases of genuine typhoid fever last fall. The water from this well is still being used.

Mr. C. Ament has gone to Elizabethtown to attend the marriage of his brother, Mr. Arthur Ament to Miss Brook Cresap. The wedding occurs today.

Orville and James Skillman and Will Bowmer attended the Oceola club ball at Owensboro, last Thursday night. They report as having had a splendid time.

A couple of little school girls were seen walking down Elm street yesterday afternoon laughing, and they escaped without being arrested. Where was the Marshal?

Dave Henry, Green Bandy, J. L. Henry, Dr. Foote, Wm. Baskett and Sam Simmons, of Irvington and vicinity, were in the city last Saturday attending the Oglesby stock sale.

The citizens of Cloverport have some liberties left yet; the church bells were tolled yesterday during the funeral of Mr. Wedding without molestation by the Marshal.

R. C. Smith and brother, of Fordsville, were in the city Saturday and Sunday. They were astride of two fine saddle horses as have pranced the streets of Cloverport for many a day.

After the first of March there will be a daily mail service from Irvington via of Bewleyville and Rosetta to Custer. This will put the News in every post-office in Breckenridge county the same day that it is published.

J. W. Richey is thinking of becoming a candidate for County Court Clerk in Hancock county, though he has not positively declared himself yet. Should he become a candidate, Hancock may have a Democratic primary or convention.

Felix Carter shipped two hogheads of tobacco to the New Enterprise House, in Louisville, last week and will ship eight or ten more this week. He has some 32 inch leaf for which he expects to get a price well up into the teens.

Miss Tula Lewis, who has been visiting relatives at Jolly's Station, returned home Monday accompanied by Miss Lela Jolly and Mr. John Rhodes. The home of Mr. Rhodes is in Iowa and he will return to that State in a few days.

A party of young folks rigged up a sleigh Monday night and took in the town sleigh-riding. The merry jingle of the bells and the happy laughter of youth, as it rang out upon the crisp air showed that they were enjoying themselves, and the fires burned brighter on the hearths at home, because of it. Joyous are the sports of youth.

The cattle receipts in Louisville last week were 910 head, bulk of them very common to fair. A few loads of good cattle. All grades except extra feeders 15 to 20 cents lower, with about 200 head left over unsold. Hog receipts 4,721 head. Market dull and lower all round. Best packers $5.00 to $5.05. About all sold, but market closed weak.

Rev. J. B. Cottrell, D. D., lectured to a large audience at the Methodist lecture room last night. Dr. Kelly introduced him with some just eulogy. Dr. Cottrell lectured for an hour and a quarter. He held the rapt attention of his audience with his presentation of "Razor Strops." His flights of eloquence were beautiful and his spontaneous outbursts of wit brought down the house. Many expressed themselves sorry when he closed.—Owensboro Messenger.

Jungling—Harris.

The Jungling—Harris wedding last Wednesday evening was a beautiful affair, and was witnessed by a large per cent. of the population of Cloverport. The Elm-street Methodist church was crowded almost to overflowing an hour before the appointed time. After the ceremony an informal reception was given in honor of the joyous event, at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Harris. This lasted till the departure of the west-bound express, when the happy couple left for Evansville, Ind., the home of the groom. They will visit New Orleans and other Southern cities before they return to Cloverport, their permanent home.

FINALLY GOT HIM.

Jim Casey, of Webster, Drinks a Quart of Apple Brandy And Dies.

Last Thursday at Webster, a friend proposed to pay for a quart of apple brandy if Jim Casey, colored, a man who was always dry, would drink it at one draft. This proposition was just to Casey's hand, and the liquor was bought and swallowed.

Strange to say, Casey showed no symptoms of being the least inconvenienced by the infernal drink. He went home as usual and retired at his usual hour. Next morning he got up and after breakfast started out. In the afternoon he was seen sitting in a fence corner along the road that leads from old Webster to new Webster, but the man that saw him, thinking that he was drunk did not disturb him, but passed on by. Later in the day other persons saw him and attempted to arouse him, but they discovered that he was dead, though the body was still warm. It was probably the reaction from the effects of the liquor coupled with the cold that killed him.

An Old Resident Dead.

Mr. Mark Wedding, seventy-two years of age, died of consumption at his home in this city at 1 o'clock p. m. Sunday February 25. His remains were interred in the Cloverport City cemetery yesterday.

Mr. Wedding had been in bad health for some time, and his death was not a surprise to those who were acquainted with his condition. He has been a respected citizen of Cloverport for many years and his death is regretted by many friends. He raised a family of four sons, who are filling lucrative and honorable positions in other parts of the country. He leaves a widow to mourn the loss of a good husband.

OGLESBY'S STOCK SALE.

A Large Crowd of People Present.
And Things Sell at Passably Good Prices.

Notwithstanding the cold and disagreeable day the sale at Oglesby's farm last Saturday was well attended. The bidding at times was spirited, and the prices were satisfactory. All the cows and heifers were registered Holsteins; and we give below a list of the sales and the prices paid:

One aged cow to Caleb Hawkins, Cloverport, $36; one cow to D. C. Stiff, Union Star, $56.25; one cow to Walker Board, Holt, $48.50; one cow to Virgil Hardin, Holt, $46; one cow to Len Cashman, Preston, $50; one cow to Harrison DeHaven, Holt, $40; one cow to R. C. Mattingly, $49.50; one cow to Ed Brashear, Hawesville, $40; one cow to R. C. Smith, Fordsville, $50; one cow to B. M. Rice, $45. One heifer to Walker Board, Holt, $21; one heifer to J. J. Friel, Victoria, $23.25; one heifer to James Crow, $20.25; one heifer to Mike Tierney, $15.25; one heifer to B. F. Cooney, $19.50.

The horses were grade Normans, and they went as follows:
One gray mare to E. B. Oglesby, $120; one bay horse, $115; one bay mare, $100; one gray mare, M. Friel, $101.50; one gray horse, Sam Dean, $81; one gray horse to B. F. Cooney, $105.50; one bay mare to M. T. Salmon, $70; one bay mare to Caleb Hawkins, $116; one gray mare to Wick Owen, $82; one horse colt to Wm. Allen, $48.

One pair of large black mules sold to W. J. Helwig for $285; one pair of mules to John Knight, $231.75; one pair two-year-old mules to Fred Fox, $183.

A considerable amount of agricultural implements sold at very low prices. The proceeds of the entire sale aggregated $2500.

NOTES.

Dr. R. L. Newsum was the clerk.
Hon. W. E. Minor cried the sale.

Every business in town was benefitted by the sale.

Both trains put off large crowds near the Oglesby barns.

The lunch was nice and abundant and enjoyed by all, free of charge.

The irrepressible candidate was there in number getting in his work.

Everybody admired the exquisite arrangement of the Oglesby farm.

Ed Oglesby never grieves over spilt milk. Too many cows in his barn for that.

When you have anything for sale, advertise it. Oglesby advertised in the BRECKENRIDGE NEWS.

Clarence Sterette, of the Hancock Clarion, was mixing in the crowd in the interest of his neat little paper.

People were there from Davies, Hancock, Grayson, Ohio, Hardin and Meade counties in this State, while Perry county, Indiana was well represented.

Dr. Foote, of Irvington, came down especially to see how Oglesby ran a dairy farm. The doctor is going into the same business and he wanted to see if he could catch an economical idea.

IT WAS VERY NICE.

The Pupils of the High School Cover Themselves With Glory on Washington's Day.

The entertainment given by the pupils of the Cloverport High school in commemoration of the birth of Washington, were beautiful, entertaining and instructive.

In the afternoon and evening of the 22nd the program, as published last week, was carried out to the letter.

The rooms were handsomely decorated with flags and bunting and the Stars and Stripes gracefully floated in the breeze from the cupola of the building.

The entertainments on the 22nd were given in the Principal's room by the pupils of that department and those of the 23rd in the room of the First Assistant, Miss Allen. The entertainment consisted of appropriate selections and patriotic music. These were all presented in good style, reflecting credit upon both pupils and teachers. The musical training had been done by Miss Annie May and the perfect presentation of all the songs showed that it had been done well.

The entertainments were well attended by parents, guardians, sisters, brothers and friends of the pupils, and the satisfactory smiles that graced the comely cheeks of many mothers, plainly said, "My child did well, and I am happy."

The occasion was a happy one for all; and while these sweet-faced, dimpled-cheeked children, youths and maidens were lifting their voices in commemoration or praise of the Father of their Country, there were more than one moist eye in the audience.

Stockholder's Meeting.

*CLOVERPORT, KY., Feb. 26 1894.—The annual meeting of the Stockholders of the Cloverport Paving Brick & Manufacturing Co. will be held at the office of the Breckenridge Bank Cloverport, Ky. on Wednesday, March, 14th 1894 at 1 o'clock p. m. at which time and place an election will be held for seven Directors to serve during the ensuing year.
A. B. SKILLMAN, Secretary.

Interested in Mrs. Sawyer's Journey.

EVANSVILLE, IND., Feb. 25.—MR. EDITOR.—My time of subscription for the News expires tomorrow. Please continue sending it to me, and the first day that I lay off I will send you the money in a registered letter. Don't miss sending this week's paper, for I have become interested in the overland journey to California. Yours Truly,
J. V. ARL.

He'll get the paper.

"TIS AN ILL WIND THAT BLOWS NO ONE GOOD."

An old saying that can not be more appropriately applied than to the customers of JULIUS WINTER & CO., southeast corner Third and Market streets, Louisville, Ky. "Our loss is your gain." Although we have been selling at an exceedingly low price our stock of Winter Clothing is still large and must be reduced. In order to do this we have again inserted the knife, and so deep that the cost price is sadly disfigured and entirely unrecognizable. HEAVYWEIGHT OVERCOATS, LIGHTWEIGHT OVERCOATS, SUITS for Men and Boys, PANTALOONS, Etc., all have suffered. YOU CAN SAVE MONEY by buying now and laying your purchase aside for next Winter.

—REMEMBER THE PLACE—

JULIUS WINTER & CO.,
Corner Third and Market Sts.,
LOUISVILLE, KY.

Clearance Sale!

In order to reduce stock, I will sell until March 10th:

Best Prints at - - 5 cts.

Ginghams - - 6 "

Sea Island Cotton - 6 " and all Cotton Goods at and below cost.

This is a genuine bargain sale. The goods must go.

Country produce or cash taken in exchange.

JAMES H. GARDNER,
HARDINSBURG, KY.

HITE'S RUN

Items are scarce. Still plenty of snow. Farmers are still burning plant beds. Mr. Charlie Furrow is on the sick list. School will close at this place Tuesday.

It takes Will Furrow to go duck hunting.

Ben Bates will start to Illinois Monday night.

Sherman Weatherholt left for Illinois last Sunday.

Ben Bates visited his mother at Skillman last week.

Ben Bates was the guest of Miss Ella Wagner Sunday.

The snow will put the farmers behind with their work.

Allen Jennings was the guest of Miss Bettie Hawkins Sunday.

Will Furrow was the guest of Miss Lizzie Newton Sunday.

Mr. Frank Mingus was the guest of Idella Volles last Sunday.

Richard Hawkins was the guest of Miss Lula Chapin Sunday.

Charlie Hawkins was the guest of Miss Zora Johnson Sunday.

Frank Bates, of Cloverport, attended church at this place Sunday.

Rev. Argabright filled his regular appointment at this place Sunday.

Mrs. Bevie Baker, of near Hardinsburg visited C. L. Johnson last week.

Effie Frank, of near Hardinsburg, is visiting her uncle, C. L. Johnson.

A great many of the Persimmon Flat people attended church here Sunday.

Mrs. Emma Smart, of Cloverport, is visiting relatives in this neighborhood.

Miss Maggie Tinius, of Cloverport, has been visiting her sister, Mrs. L. V. Chapin.

Miss Mattie Mattingly has returned from a pleasant visit to friends in Meade county.

Wall Smith has returned from Owensboro and expects to crop with his brother, Jim Smith.

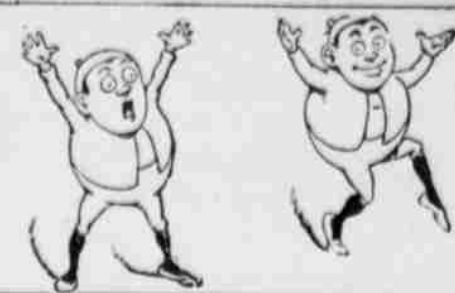

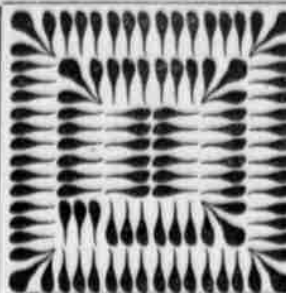

Pale Faces

show Depleted Blood, poor nourishment, everything bad. They are signs of Anemia.

Scott's Emulsion

the Cream of Cod-liver Oil, with hypophosphites, enriches the blood, purifies the skin, cures Anemia, builds up the system. Physicians, the world over, endorse it.

Don't be deceived by Substitutes!
Prepared by Scott & Bowne, N. Y. All Druggists.

We were Not Awarded

a
Medal

at the World's Fair

Because our goods were not on exhibition there; but our customers tell us that every article purchased at our store has proven to be exactly as represented. This indorsement we consider more valuable than a car load of medals, and our constant aim will be to merit enduring confidence of our patrons.

Try a pound or two of our Chase & Sanborn's celebrated Coffee as a starter, you will like it

Do
You
Plow

If you do, we can make it easy for you. Leave your old plow right where it is when you read this and come and take your choice out of the following makes:

The easy running "OLIVER,"
The Mule strong "BRINLEY," Man's Favorite The "BLOUNT."

In one horse Plows we please everybody. We carry Points and Bolts for all. If you run a

We can astonish you in that line, and if you will come and look you will buy a BUGGY.

B. F. BEARD, DILLON & CO.,
HARDINSBURG, KY.

Keep your eye on this spot and you will save money.

LOOK AT THIS

We want to sell our

Saddlery

Harness

We want to sell our COLLARS,

We want to sell our

We want to sell our

We want to sell our

We want to sell our

We want to sell our

We want to sell our

We want to sell our

We want to sell our

We want to sell our

We want to sell our

Do you want a GOOD PAIR of

CHECK LINES? If so, come and see what we have and you will buy.

We will sell you next Saturday,

March 3d,

Canned Tomatoes @ 10c.

Canned Corn @ 10c.

Canned Peaches @ 12c.

Hominy @ 2c per lb.

ONE DAY ONLY.

Very Respectfully, John P. Haswell & Son,
HARDINSBURG, KY.

JACK FOR SALE,

Two years old, with three June 25, 1894. Black, with all the points, 14 hands high, very stylish and highly bred. For further information or particulars, call on or address
WILLIAM BEARD,
Hardinsburg, Ky.

FOR SALE.

Thirty years lease on New Holland Coal Mines, including horses, three mules and other equipments. This mine is situated six miles West of Owensboro, on the St. L. & T. R. R., and is in good operating condition. Only small cash payment will be necessary to secure trade, balance will be taken in coal. For further particulars call on or address
H. G. SIMMONS,
Owensboro, Ky.